TENTATIVE ACTIVITIES

- Students will spend 7 days housed in Berlin and 10 days in Vienna, from there we will make a one-day excursion to Bratislava, Slovakia and another excursion to Sopron, Hungary. Students will explore the major sites of the Holocaust and Jewish Culture in Berlin: Wannsee Conference Villa, Oranienburg Street Synagogue, Holocaust Memorial, Jewish Museum, and other Berlin sites; in Vienna we will explore the Jewish Museum, the Military History Museum of Austria-Hungary and the city of Vienna museum, the Jewish Cemetery and Deportation sites among many other museums and sites, such as the Schönbrunn and Hofburg Palaces. In Bratislava students will visit the capital of one of the successor states of Austria-Hungary and specifically visit the Hrad Castle and the Jewish museum in the medieval Old Town. In Sopron, Hungary we will explore the Jewish quarter and compare the History of the Holocaust in Hungary with that in Austria.
