The Randolph-Macon College Boydton Society has made reservations to have lunch and attend

"Cotton Patch Gospel"

Sunday, March 17, 2013
at Barksdale Theatre at Hanover Tavern 13181 Hanover Courthouse Road, Hanover, VA

We will have "Center Stage" seats for this great theatrical production!

12:30 p.m. – Luncheon (Three Courses) – Barksdale Tavern and Pub in the Arch Room
2:00 p.m. – Theatre Presentation

A joyous, musical adaptation of the Gospels of Matthew and John! A gem of musical theater, this reverent adaption of "The Greatest Story Ever Told" transplants the story of Jesus into the mid-20th-century American South and considers what might have happened had Jesus been born in Georgia — with Gainesville standing in for Bethlehem, Valdosta for Nazareth and Atlanta as the fateful Jerusalem. A cast of exuberant actors/singers/musicians takes the audience on a fun, foot-stomping and inspiring journey with plenty of places to laugh and cry.

Please return the form shown below noting your menu choices. Questions? Please call the Alumni Office at 804-752-7218 or toll free at 866-694-4574. Thank you!

Starter Options (Indicate #):	Cup of She Crab Soup ___	Mixed Green Salad ___
Main Course (Indicate #):	Homemade Chicken Salad ___	Turkey Reuben ___
	Virginia Barbeque ___	BLT Melt ___
Dessert (Indicate #):	Cheesecake du Jur ___	Fruit Cobbler a la mode ___

Cost is $49.25 per person. Please make checks payable to "R-MC" and note "Cotton Patch Gospel" on the memo line. Reservations are due by March 4, 2013 to: The Alumni Office, Randolph-Macon College, P. O. Box 5005, Ashland, VA 23005-5505. See you then!