Randolph-Macon College's 10th Annual

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

U.S. Department of State / U.S. Department of Education

November 4th – 8th, 2013

International Education Week is celebrated at hundreds of schools across the country and around the world. R-MC's Office of International Education (OIE), in collaboration with other departments and student organizations, presents a wide range of events that highlight our cultural diversity. Open to R-MC and the wider community (unless otherwise noted). Be sure not to miss out!!!

This year's theme is "Pilgrimage"

Monday, November 4th

A Spark of Hope for Haiti

4:00 – 5:00 p.m. in the A/V Room of the McGraw-Page Library
Presented by Professor Jennifer Shotwell, Phuong Bui, Shuyan Zhan, Nana Bamfo and Kethelyne Beauvais. Join us for a presentation of pictures and video from a student -led volunteer trip to Haiti sponsored by the Davis Project for Peace Grant.
Contact: Jennifer Shotwell (JenniferShotwell@rmc.edu)

Habitat Global Village Presentation

6:00 p.m. in the Dollar Tree Room in Brock Commons
Sponsored by R-MC's Habitat for Humanity. R-MC chapter members Sarah Keith and Maddy Dean will give a presentation on Habitat for Humanity's International Global Village and how the R-MC community can participate.
Contact: Sarah Keith (SarahKeith@go.rmc.edu)

Film Screening/Le Prénom (2012)

7:00 – 9:00 p.m. in the SunTrust Theater in Brock Commons
Sponsored by the French Department. What's in a name? A French farce about food, friends and family, directed by Alexandre de La Patellière and Matthieu Delaporte. Open to R-MC students, faculty and staff only.

International Dance Performance!

8:00 p.m. on the 1st floor of Brock Commons
Sponsored by the International Interest Group. A spectacular opening event for IEW! International students will perform Salsa, K-Pop, Bollywood dance and more! Contact: Marylita Pomapacheco (MarylitaPomapacheco@go.rmc.edu)

Tuesday, November 5th

International Students in the Classroom: How to Deal with Them?

1:30 – 2:00 p.m. in the SunTrust Theater in Brock Commons
Sponsored by the International Interest Group. A panel shares what it's like to be international students at R-MC, challenges they face on campus, and how they overcome them. Contact: Marylita Pomapacheco (MarylitaPomapacheco@go.rmc.edu)

Lecture & Reception/George Greenia, Professor of Hispanic Studies at the College of William & Mary presents "Sacred Steps: Medieval Pilgrimage & American Myth"

7:30 p.m. in the Andrews Hall Multi-Purpose Room
Sponsored by the Office of International Education (OIE) and the Cultural Arts & Entertainment Series. Medieval Christian pilgrimage is a starting point for exploring patterns of reverent movement, both secular and sacred, common to countless traditions, and offers a template for understanding contemporary journeys. Pilgrimage is also central to the American myth, and how we explored and settled our land in hopes of founding a succession of New Jerusalems. Free and open to the public. Contact: Jane Nucup (JaneNucup@rmc.edu)

Wednesday, November 6th

French Breakfast Sale

8:30 – 11:00 a.m. in Haley Hall
Sponsored by the French Club. The French Club will fill orders of coffee, juice and delicious croissants. Orders should be placed and prepaid between Oct. 28th-Nov. 1st.
Contact: Isabelle White (IsabelleWhite@go.rmc.edu)

Film Screening/Lecture: Princess Mononoke

6:30 – 9:30 p.m. in the SunTrust Theater in Brock Commons
Sponsored by the Asian Studies Department. Profs. Munson (Asian Studies & History) and Brown (Religious Studies) will introduce Hayao Miyazaki's animated classic Princess Mononoke (1997). Set in ancient Japan, this epic film weaves together history and fantasy. Open to R-MC students, faculty and staff only.

Thursday, November 7th

International Snack Sale for Nourish International

11:30 a.m. – 2 p.m. on the 1st floor of Brock Commons
Sponsored by the R-MC chapter of Nourish International. Various homemade International snacks on sale — all profits go to international programs alleviating poverty!
Contact: Shuyan Zhan (ShuyanZhan@go.rmc.edu)

Making Technology Have Relevance in the Language Classroom: Moving Toward Proficiency

4:00 – 6:00 p.m. in the Butler Lab, Haley Hall
Sponsored by the Butler Lab & the Foreign Language Assoc. of VA. This web workshop helps language instructors integrate technologies into their lessons and identify web-based tools that aid language proficiency development. All are invited.

Film Screening & Reception/LIVE YOUR DREAM: THE TAYLOR ANDERSON STORY

6:30 – 9:00 p.m. in the SunTrust Theater in Brock Commons
Sponsored by the OIE. This film tells the story of Taylor Anderson, an R-MC alumna, and all young people who travel the world trying to make a difference. Remarks and reception at 6:30, followed by the film at 7:00 p.m. Free and open to the public.

Friday, November 8th

Butler Lab Open House & World Music Discovery

2:00 - 3:00 p.m. in the Butler Lab, Haley Hall
Sponsored by the Butler Lab. Join us as we wrap up IEW with music from around the world! Check out the resources Butler Lab has to offer and enjoy some food and drink.
Contact: Jennifer Shotwell (jennifershotwell@rmc.edu)

A Spark of Hope for Haiti

3:00 – 4:00 p.m. in the Butler Lab, Haley Hall
See the description under Monday, Nov. 4th.

Food Truck - Monique's Crêpes

11:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Outside Fox Hall, on the corner of Henry & Caroline Streets
Sponsored by the Office of International Education. Monique's Crêpes (www.moniquescrepes.com) will be serving authentic French crêpes. Bon appétit!

Pilgrims in Conversation

5:00 – 6:00 p.m. Lounge area on the 1st floor of Brock Commons
Sponsored by the Office of International Education. As we conclude another International Education Week, we invite you to share your pilgrimage experiences in an informal setting. Whether you've made a religious pilgrimage, studied abroad, trekked to Graceland or taken a hike, we'd love to hear about your travels and transformations.

Throughout the Week

AlterNatives Fair Trade Sale

10:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m., Mon. Nov. 4th–Wed. Nov 6th, 1st floor of Brock Commons
Sponsored by the OIE. Purchase gifts from around the world including jewelry, scarves, ornaments and more! Contact: Jane Nucup (janenucup@rmc.edu)

Where in the World Have You Been?

All week, Butler Lab
Sponsored by the Butler Lab. Stop by the Butler Lab to leave footsteps of your world travel/ living experiences!

Display - Mementos & Keepsakes from our Journeys

All week, McGraw-Page Library
Sponsored by the OIE. Be sure to stop by the display case at the entrance to the library and admire some of the souvenirs that members of the R-MC community have brought back from their journeys and pilgrimages.

Post-IEW Events

U.S. Dept. of State: Careers Representing America

Monday, Nov. 11th, 4:00 - 5:15 p.m. in the Dollar Tree Room in Brock Commons
Sponsored by the EDGE and OIE. Students can register for this unique opportunity to speak with Michael Yoder, an experienced diplomat and former recruiter for the United States Department of State. Seating is limited. RSVP no later than November 5, 2013 at ecimorel@rmc.edu with subject line: State Department.

Modern Language International Forum

Thursday, Nov. 14th, 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. in Copley 100
Sponsored by the Modern Language Department. Contact: Sandrine Teixidor (steixidor@rmc.edu)

Our sincere thanks to our volunteers & sponsors.

Questions? Contact R-MC's Office of International Education (OIE) at 804-752-3607 or Mayumi Nakamura at mayuminakamura@rmc.edu. For the most up-to-date information, visit our website: www.rmc.edu/studyabroad/. Randolph-Macon College is located at 204 Henry Street, Ashland VA. 23005-5505. For directions & campus map, visit http://www.rmc.edu/address.aspx

Randolph-Macon College
Ashland, Virginia

Office of International Education

College's approval stamp HERE: