Randolph-Macon College
Ashland, Virginia

New Student Orientation
Spring 2014

Saturday, February 8, 2014

3:00 – 5:30 pm New Student Check-In Mary Branch, middle (The Hive)

New students living on campus should plan to check-in, then move in at this time. Returning students will move in the following day. Commuter students should also plan to check-in during this time to receive their information and security access fobs (plan on 20 minutes). Get your ID made at this time as well.

6:00 – 8:00 pm Dinner with College Staff Estes Dining Hall, Trustee Room (upstairs)

You and your family (and new campus roommate, if you have one and s/he has arrived to campus – Please RSVP guests) are invited to this welcome dinner. Join fellow new students and campus representatives who are thrilled to welcome you to Randolph-Macon. Staff will include folks from student life, judicial affairs, residence life and housing, and commuter resources among others. Note: Do not pay to enter the dining room on the lower-level, instead go directly upstairs from the building entry to join us. Get a Randolph-Macon College t-shirt.

Sunday, February 9, 2014

9:00 am – 1:30 pm Brunch Served (optional, on your own) Estes Dining Hall

Estes begins its regular spring semester schedule. Pay with your meal plan or $9 at the door.

1:00 – 1:30 pm Campus Tour (optional) Meet at Fountain Plaza

Still getting your bearings? Do you know where to find your mailbox, laundry facilities, classrooms, health services, and fitness facilities? What about student clubs, places to eat, or your academic department? Get a personalized tour of the campus from a returning student.

1:30 – 3:30 pm Welcome to R-MC: Academics and Social Life Abernathy Room (24/7 room), Warner Pavilion McGraw-Page Library (enter from Henry Street)

Presentations about Information Technology Services (ITS), code of conduct, academic integrity, academic success, the Randolph-Macon EDGE, and Student Life will prepare you for a successful beginning at R-MC. We will conclude with the academic and matriculation oaths, thus participating in an R-MC tradition that spans over 100 years.

3:30 – 4:00 pm Welcome Reception Abernathy Room

Join faculty, staff, returning students, and fellow new students as we celebrate your entry into Randolph-Macon.

5:00 – 7:30 pm Dinner Served (optional, on your own) Estes Dining Hall

Estes begins its regular spring semester schedule. Pay with your meal plan or $9 at the door.

*New student orientation is required for all new students. All events listed are required unless otherwise noted.