

Estimated Cost

$3,400

The estimated cost per student is all-inclusive EXCEPT there will be up to 2 site visit days where students will be responsible for their own Lunch and/or dinner. While in London for our "middle weekend" students will be responsible for their own lunches and dinners (Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday). The hotel in London is covered in the all-inclusive, as is breakfast at the hotel. Students may have sight-seeing costs while in London.

Important Note:

Students must make the deadlines for deposits and full payment as instructed below. October 3rd is the last day to ADD or DROP J-term study/travel courses. For the College's cancellation and refund policy for study/travel courses, visit the J-term section on the OIE's website (www.rmc.edu/studyabroad).

\ unless an earlier deadline was established by the instructor.*

J-term Need-based Travel Scholarship:

There are still some funds to be awarded, for which you can apply through the Financial Aid Office (visit <http://www.rmc.edu/FAForms> to download an application form). The priority will be given to freshmen who are eligible. If you have already been notified you are the recipient of a January-term need-based scholarship, that amount should be noted and accounted for in your remaining balance after your first payment has been received.

Eligibility: To be eligible to apply, students must (1) have the 2011-2012 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) completed by the priority deadline of April 15th, 2011 and (2) be pre-registered for a J-term 2012 travel course.

Application: Please complete Part 1 and 2 of the application form. For Part 2, you will need to attach a brief letter explaining why you need financial assistance to participate in the travel course.

Deadline: Friday, September 23th, 2011.

J-TERM STUDY / TRAVEL COURSE 2012

England

ECON 383 Britain in the International Economy

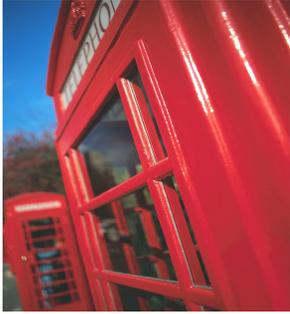

Instructors:

Dr. George Lowry

Dr. Edward Showalter

An Economy Worth a Look

Course Description

Traditional London Telephone Boxes

The host site, Wroxton College, will serve as the home base for this J-term course. In addition to the rigors of studying abroad, the class will take time to visit some points of interest including Stonehenge, the Roman baths of Bath, Stratford-upon-Avon, Oxford, and Warwick Castle.

We'll also spend a long weekend in London, combining coursework with sight-seeing and some relaxation. Also scheduled are industry site visits, which serve as object lessons, connecting theory to practice.

Faculty

Dr. George Lowry has taken students to Wroxton for January term courses ten times since 1993, participated in two Undergraduate International Conferences in Brussels, Belgium, served as panelist for MBA programs at Wroxton, and conducted a 7-month long sabbatical in western Europe, using Wroxton College as a home base. In all, Dr. Lowry has made 19 trips to England and visited nine other European countries as part of his on-going research on the European Union.
