J-TERM STUDY/TRAVEL COURSE 2013

FINA 350.01

The Arts in London

Westminster Abby

Instructor:

Professor Joe Mattys

FINA 350 The Arts in London

Course Description

The experience gives students a taste of one of the liveliest cultural centers in the world and the chance to study first-hand some of the best theatre, visual art and music the world has to offer. The class attends plays, concerts, and museums and engages in a fair amount of unstructured visiting time to such historical sites as the Tower of London, Westminster Abbey, and the restored Globe Theatre. We've seen everything from Shakespeare (an all-male - and very good - Twelfth Night) to a recent Broadway hit (History Boys) to Wicked (while it was sold out in New York), to classics such as The Sea Gull and traditional English pantomime. And we've seen treasures from the ancient world such as the controversial Elgin Marbles at the British Museum as well as avant-garde stuff in off the beaten path galleries. Even the food is a big surprise: you can get everything from sushi to souvlaki, from fish and chips to good old Macdonald's in a single street in London. As Samuel Johnson observed, "When a man is tired of London he is tired of life; for there is in London all that life can afford."
