Family Weekend

Friday, October 2

Study Abroad Fair

1:30 p.m.–4:00 p.m. • Campus Center

Interested in studying abroad? Don't miss this opportunity to meet with Office of International Education staff, January Term 2010 Study/Travel course instructors, exchange students from France and Germany, and a representative from ISEP (International Student Exchange Programs).

Parents Question & Answer Session

4:30 p.m.–5:30 p.m. • Blackwell Auditorium

Join us for an open discussion on the academic and professional successes of R-MC students. The programs featured include Study Abroad, SURF, J-Term, Internships, Higgins Academic Center, and Career Counseling.

President's Welcome Reception

6:00 p.m.–7:30 p.m. • President's House

305 Caroline Street (Rain Location, Brock Center)

Please join President and Mrs. Lindgren and Randolph-Macon College faculty for a reception at the President's home to welcome R-MC families to campus.

All in the Timing, Presented by the R-MC Drama Dept. 8:00 p.m. • Blackwell Auditorium

For reservations contact the Box Office after September 15 at 804-752-7316. Admission $5.00 per person (students free with ID). A collection of short and comedic one-act plays by the American playwright David Ives.

Tickets purchased for this event will be at the door the night of the performance.*

Family Weekend

Saturday, October 3

Family Weekend Information Center and Registration

9:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m. • Campus Center

Enjoy complimentary coffee and pastries while mingling with other Randolph-Macon families and picking up your registration materials. If you have ordered tickets for any weekend events, please plan to pick them up at the registration table.

Ring Ceremony

10:00 a.m.–11:00 a.m. • Blackwell Auditorium

Highlights of our traditional Ring Ceremony include an address by President Lindgren and family members joining juniors and seniors onstage for the presentation of the students' college rings.

Historic Walking Tour of Ashland

Departs 10:00 a.m. • Ashland Visitor's Center

Highlights of the historic walking tour include The Henry Clay Inn, Ashland's Red Caboose, and Cross Brothers Grocery Store. Please wear comfortable walking shoes.

Carriage Rides

10:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Departing in front of the Campus Center

Come and participate in a longstanding Randolph-Macon tradition! You and your family are invited to take a complimentary carriage ride through campus.

Stock the Shelves of the Leadership Library

10:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m. • 2nd floor, Campus Center

Newly created, the leadership library is a functional meeting space surrounded by leadership books. Dust off that book or buy a new one and help us stock the bookcases with resources and tools that students can use to enhance their leadership journey and experience. For more information on how to contribute, visit <http://www.rmc.edu/current-students/leadership.aspx>.

Habitat for Humanity Bake Sale

10:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m. • Outside the Campus Center

The R-MC Chapter of Habitat for Humanity International is a nonprofit, housing ministry that seeks to eliminate poverty housing and homelessness from the world, and to make decent shelter a matter of conscience and action. Please stop by the bake sale and support their efforts so that they can supply the building materials used during the next Alternative Spring Break trip.

Student Art Works

10:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m.

Pace-Armistead Hall

A collection of art created by students of Randolph-Macon College will be on exhibit.

Football Tailgate

Opens at 10:00 a.m. • Brock Center Parking Lot

Come and tailgate with your family in the designated area and enjoy the Yellow Jacket game-day atmosphere. Designated tailgate spaces may be reserved for all home games by contacting the Alumni Office at (804)752-7221 or rcaldera@rmc.edu.

Kids Zone
