RANDOLPH-MACON
COLLEGE

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International students entering Randolph-Macon College must be able to pay the full cost of educational expenses for the upcoming academic year. These costs may be paid with the student's or his/her parent's savings, with financial aid from Randolph-Macon College and/or from other individuals or sources, or any combination of these. This amount does not include international travel expenses but does allow for some travel within the United States. Proof of financial responsibility must be verified by the United States Consulate before departure to the United States.

If your application for admission is accepted, and after you submit your enrollment deposit and this financial statement, Randolph-Macon College will issue you an I-20 immigration form. We must have this completed statement before we can issue the I-20.
